Directions from Cannes, Antibes or Monaco by public transport

Geography

Cannes is 30 km (18 miles) to the south-west of Nice, Antibes is 17 km (11 miles) in the same direction and Monaco is 13 km (8 miles) east of Nice.

Coming by train

From either of these, the fastest way to get to Nice is by train (Cannes 40 min, Antibes 30min, Monaco 25min), although this leaves you with a 20-25min walk (1.8 km, 1.1 miles) from the train station in Nice to our meeting point, (although you can also grab the tram to shorten the walk somewhat). Get off at the Nice-Ville station.

Meeting Point (WARNING many tours leave from here)

The meeting point is Opera Plage (Opera Beach), see above. It's on the seafront walkway near the Old Town. GPS coordinates: 43.694873 N, 7.272783 E

We run several tours from the same meeting point starting at the same time. Please let the guide know your surname so (s)he can check that you're on the right tour!

- With the train station behind you, turn left and walk out to the main thoroughfare, the Avenue Jean Médecin.
- Turn right and follow it all the way down to a very large square with a large Apollo statue at its far/south end.

- Alternatively, grab the tram (1 € per trip per person) from the "Gare Thiers" stop for two stops and get off at the "Masséna" stop.
- Walk towards the giant statue of Apollo in the middle of a fountain.
- Walk past the statue and take the street leading down to the sea behind it, the Rue de l'Opéra.
- Leave the monumental "Rusty Poles" statue (see picture) on your left as you approach the sea.
- When on the seaside walkway, turn left and look for the "Opera Plage" beach restaurant entrance (see picture).
- The "Rusty Poles" monument is near our meeting point, see picture to the right.
- Please turn up on time, as the tour may start without you!
