Fun and Interesting half day or day trips

Buses: for Monaco, Villefranche, St Jean Cap Ferrat, stops are changing due to work in the port. Normally, they leave from near Place Garibaldi 1.50 € each way. Alternatively, buy a €10 ticket from Lignes D'Azur shop near place Garibaldi, gives you 10 rides at €1. Use the same ticket for multiple passengers, for the tram and all buses in the county except the Airport buses. For Eze go to bus station Vauban (descend at Vauban tram stop, follow the tracks in direction away from Nice centre, take 1st right onto rue du Roquebilliere, the stop is at the roundabout, on the right). Buses not as frequent on Sundays and holidays.

Monaco – take no. 100 bus, or no 112 via Eze. ~1 hour journey. Bus leaves every 15 mins. Train is faster and about 7 € return. Dine in Monaco, however remember last train home leaves early. Or take a boat there from Nice Port from June to Sept. If driving, stop off at La Turbie village (see also la Tête du chien below) above Monaco, spectacular views of the principality. Do our Ebike tour of Monaco - monacobiketours.com

Villefranche – stop off here for breakfast/lunch on the way to Monaco, it is a pretty little colourful town with a sandy beach. Take bus no 15 or no. 100 or get the train.

St Jean Cap Ferrat – get bus no. 15, get off at Port St-Jean-Cap-Ferrat. A quaint village with many houses for the rich and famous. You can take a stunning 2km flat walk all along the cap starting from Paloma Beach (from the village, walk up past the hotel La Voile d'Or and it's the next beach). We also recommend Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild – amazing gardens, a little piece of paradise!

Cap d'Ail – Plage de la Mala – beautiful beach, stoney. Get the train there (last stop before Monaco). There are many steps down to the beach (not stroller friendly). Watch the sunset over Cap Ferrat!

Eze – Beautiful medieval village 30 mins bus journey from Nice, get bus 82 or 112 (112 not running Sun). 2 hours is sufficient to visit the village. Visit the perfume factory, touristy with a shop at the end but interesting. Feeling sporty? Take a steep hike down to the village below called Eze-sur-Mer, about 1.5 hours long, amazing sea views. Continue to Monaco on bus 112.

Antibes – take the train (20 mins) or cycle (1 hr) on the coastal road. Lovely Provençal style coastal town, with lots of restaurants and shops and a nice marina – the largest yachting harbour in the mediterranean!

Juan les pins – best sandy beaches between Cannes and Nice. Seaside resort atmosphere and shopping open 'til midnight. Take the train or combine with Antibes.

Cannes – take the train, about 45 mins journey, visit the promenade, beaches, marina and old town. Get ferry to the relaxing islands “Les Iles de Lerins” – visit the 1 500 year old Cistercian Abbey on Île Saint Honorat.

St Paul-de-Vence – Great museum (Fondation Maeght), many quality art galleries and pretty shops in a medieval hilltop village. Go by car or tram line 2, then bus 400 from Parc Phoenix - 1,5 hrs in total.

Entrevaux – A medieval village, complete with a real drawbridge, deep into the mountains. About 60 km from Nice. You can take the Train des Pignes from the Gare du Sud, about 10 minutes' walk behind the main train station Nice-Ville, or from the “Liberation” tram stop.

St Tropez – avoid doing by car during the main season. Take a boat trip from the port of Nice, 2.5 hrs one way, daily during July and August, no service October - May. Alternatively, get the train to St-Raphael, then get a ferry to St Tropez.

Cimiez in Nice – get no. 5 bus from Masséna/Guitry (behind Galeries Lafayette). Get off at the Chagall Museum first, then continue to the Matisse Museum, see Queen Victoria's hotel Regina (now apartments), Roman ruins, a monastery and a pretty park full of olive trees. The museums are closed Tuesdays.

Day trip to Italy – catch a train to San Remo or Bordighera, change at Ventimiglia

Valbonne, Biot or Grasse – pretty quaint villages within easy driving distance. Car required

Mountains – the hidden aspect of the French Riviera – discover total wilderness within one to two hour's drive! Go to Utelle for a walk and have lunch at the monastery at la Madone d'Utelle. Car required

LaTête de Chien – look down on the rich & famous in Monaco! Drive to La Turbie, then head right for Cap d'Ail, then left after 300 m, signposted “Route de la Tête de Chien”. Park at the end of the road by an observatory and walk through a tunnel out onto the rock. Car required
